Editorial

I was dismayed when I heard that the Village Fete had been abandoned through lack of committee support. I think it is fair to say that the Fun Day, the replacement, was a great success. Although the weather was occasionally showery it was largely a pleasant sunny day as shown in the pictures in our centre pages.

Local organisations, groups and clubs are invited to apply for a share of the Fun Day 2016 Surplus. See page 41 for details of how to apply.

Also in this issue is an article from the Arngask Old Graveyard Preservation Group. It details the work they have been carrying out since the last article which appeared in the Newsletter. They would appreciate any information about who may be interred there. The group's contact details can be found in the article.

Note on the back page the changes in the Bank Of Scotland times. You need to be quick. The van is here for ten minutes only.

Church News

Abernethy and Dron
and Arngask Parish
Church of Scotland

The summer months tend to be a quiet time of the year for the church, with families on holiday and gardens to be tended, but the work of our Locum Minister goes on and Rev Douglas Main has been busy getting to know the congregation and meeting the community at events such as the Village Fun Day.

The search for our new minister continues and we will keep you advised of progress over the coming months and hope with your support it's not too long before we make an appointment.

With meeting space at a premium in the village don't forget our Church Hall and (with some restrictions) the main Church are available for hire. Check out the Church Website or contact Sheona Reid to book.

Air Space Survey

Edinburgh Airport is asking for views on the potential impact of altering flight paths to / from the airport. The company says that these changes are fundamental to Edinburgh Airport's continued development. To find out more, go to letsgofurther.com

If you insert your post code, you will see that our area is within the design envelope for northern arrivals. No specific routes across this area have yet been decided.

The on-line survey is asking for feedback regarding what local factors should be taken into account when deciding on exact routes. You may feel that some of these suggestions are relevant to Glenfarg.

- Elevated site for noise from low flying aircraft

- Existing noise from the M90

- Existing flights from Dundee and Perth Airports.

- Gliders at Portmoak, Balloon and Microlite flights from Balado

This is your chance to have your say before decisions are made. Submit the on-line survey before the deadline of 12th September.

Did you know that Glenfarg has its own website?

That may sound like a strange question, but it has been brought to our attention recently that not everyone is aware of its existence. So, if you are a computer user and haven't yet found this website, go to the following address – www.glenfarg.org

The website was originally started by a Village Hall group. There was also a separate Community Council website at that time. So, the CC agreed to amalgamate both sites into one, to be run by volunteers but overseen by the CC in the same way as the Newsletter.

With the introduction of the Glenfarg Grapevine, the website no longer needs to provide the instant weekly information. But it is still our showcase for the outside world, plus you can use it to find –

- Club information and contacts
- What's on in the Village Hall
- Which bin to put out this week
- When the Post Office van is in Glenfarg
- What happened at the Community Council meeting
- What's happening in the village in the next few months and much more

However, we rely on YOU to provide the up-to-date information.

Arngask Old Graveyard Preservation Group

The examination of the statue of Lady Margaret Barclay and the old church bell-cote was carried out in late March and we received the report in April.

I would like to thank everyone who bought a quiz sheet and also to the local newsagent in Glenfarg and other outlets in the surrounding villages who very kindly allowed us to leave quiz sheets in their shops and restaurants for people to purchase.

I would also like to thank one of the readers of your magazine who also kindly gave a donation to help us reach our target figure to meet the cost of the Conservation Report.

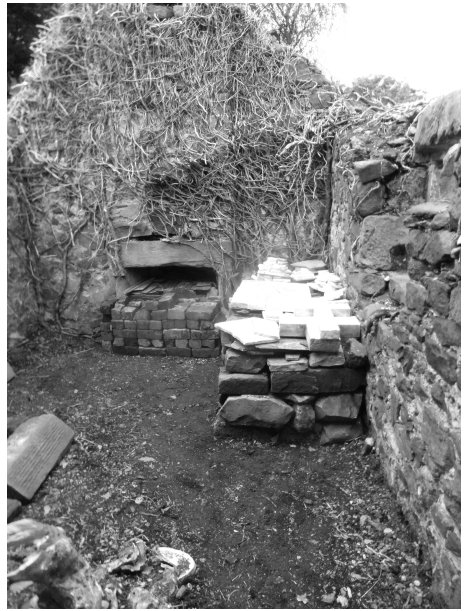

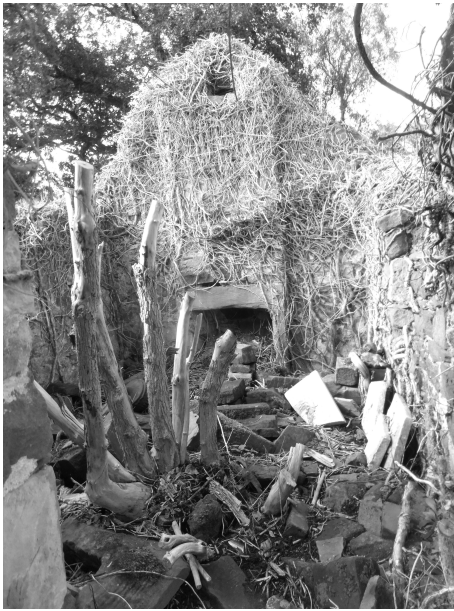

Our article in the February issue of the Glenfarg Newsletter obviously raised some interest. I hope that those who visited the graveyard did enjoy their visit and took time to reflect on the importance of the graveyard to their local community.

The Conservation Report that was prepared by Graciela Ainsworth was fairly extensive in its recommendations for taking action to preserve the statue and bell-cote for future generations to enjoy.

Whatever decision is made for the conservation and preservation of both the statue and the old church bell-cote, it will amount to a substantial sum of money and grant funding will be looked at, as a means of funding the project along with other funding schemes.

Our group hopes in the near future to have discussions with various local community groups regarding the contents of the Conservation Report, in order to discuss the best way forward for protecting both the statue of Lady Margaret Barclay and the old church bell-cote for the local community and for other interested parties from other areas.

Since our last article in the Newsletter, our group has carried out further investigation at the old watch-house located within the graveyard which over the years has been used as a dumping ground for broken headstones, broken memorial tablets, broken slates, bricks and boulders.

(See the before and after photographs of the watch-house.)

The broken headstones and memorial tablets which were found within the watch-house have been cleaned and many of the broken pieces of memorial tablet were fitted back together like a jigsaw and they have been photographed, drawn and all measurements and inscriptional details noted from them.

They have all been replaced back into the watch-house in a tidy manner and this includes the boulders, bricks and broken pieces of slate.

We would like to ask readers of the Newsletter, if there is anyone residing in the village or indeed further afield who may have any old documents, maps, or photograph's of the graveyard, statue of Lady Margaret Barclay, the old church bell-cote, watch-house or the ruined church from a bygone era or indeed have any relatives who are buried within the graveyard. Information like this may assist us in the historical aspect of the ongoing project at the graveyard and indeed help us, if possible, to put faces to those who have been interred in the graveyard . We would be keen to hear from local residents or indeed to examine any documentation they may have.

We have recently been able to find an old lantern slide of the 1710 church bell-cote which we are trying to save. The slide, which is not of the best of quality shows the old church bell which was made by Robert Maxwell from Edinburgh, a well-known bell maker and also shows that it was secured to the bell-cote by a substantial chain. A small plaque can also be seen at the bottom of the bell-cote but the writing is indecipherable from the slide. The plinth on the lantern slide differs from the crumbling plinth that the bell-cote rests upon at the present time.

We have carried out some research of some of the names of people whose headstones are in the graveyard and have been able to establish some interesting information on one particular family called Glass who are interred within the graveyard.

On some of the broken memorial tablet stones which were found within the watch-house, there is reference to a Reverend Laurence or Lawrence Glass (Born 1777-78 and died 1812-13) and his wife Margaret Scott (1786–1873) who had local connections to the area and also in Aberdeen where he was a minister. There are minor differences in his birth and death dates in the information that we have traced so far.

They had two daughters Margaret Scott Glass died 8th October 1888 aged 77 years and Catherine Glass died 17th April 1901 aged 90 years, who were both prominent local land owners and who it would seem, had strong connections with a farm called Newton ( Now possibly Newton of Balcanquhal).

From research carried out so far, it would seem that the Glass family were frequent benefactors to various causes in the district including supporting the local school. (They also built a school).

It would appear that members of Glass family were also well travelled with connections to London, Portobello, Aberdeen, America and also Jamaica.

The Rev Laurence or Lawrence Glass was the Minister of the Associate Burgher Congregation, Correction Wynd in Aberdeen. He died in the 35th year of his life (7th May either 1812 or 1813) and had been a minister for 14 years.

His widow Margaret remarried a Charles Dominic Moltano in London who came from a prominent family who had emigrated from Milan to London.

If anyone is interested on reading further into the Molteno connection, then please look up The "Molteno Family - Italian Origins and English Roots" under that heading or check out the family on the website via the following link - <http://moltenofamily.net/>.

On this family website, there is reference to Margaret Glass marrying into the Molteno family (page 13) with a photograph of her second husband Charles Dominic Molteno. Looking at his photograph, he is a very distinguished looking gentleman.

Further to our initial request for old documentation on the area, we would also like to ask if any of your readers can recall or may have photographs of 7 to 8 memorial crosses (possibly more) which had been placed in the graveyard by the Military for local men who had been killed in the First World War. (Arngask is listed as a Commonwealth War Grave)

These memorial crosses were placed on the north east of the graveyard as you enter the main gate. There is now no longer any trace of those crosses.

From information received it would appear that about 30 year ago, the bronze plaques on those crosses were removed, possibly stolen, and the crosses were then destroyed.

The bronze plaques gave the name of the soldier who had been killed along with the regiment that he served in.

Only one memorial military cross remains (very badly damaged) to a Trooper George McArthur, 1st Life Guards who was killed in action on the 21st December 1917. He is buried at Valdencourt in the New British Cemetery at Maisseny, in France

If there is anyone who can recall those missing crosses or may have photographs of them, or indeed if there is anyone who may be a relative of any of those killed in the First World War, then we would like to hear from you. ( More so, due to the recent television and media attention on the First World War

We can be contacted on mobile 07729801690 or 07939067713

The Scottish Baking Awards

The founder and director of the Scottish Baking Awards is Melanie Andrews who is passionate about Scottish baking. She has her own tearooms in Scotland (Craigard Tearooms) as well as running the Scottish Baking Awards single-handed. She has also published Scottish baking recipe books.

I was interested in working towards a Scottish Baking Awards certificate, particularly as I've not see any other local cake makers that I know promoting the award, and also as evidence to show any new and potential customers that my home-made cakes taste good – I'm sure most people think the taste of a cake is just as important as the look.

To achieve a certificate from Melanie I had to prepare at least five different types of baked goods for her to sample on a pre-arranged visit to Glenfarg. She would rate my bakes on a number of different criteria such as texture, flavour and appearance, and my final scores would determine whether I would receive an award.

Oh my goodness, how stressful I found the morning of Melanie's visit. It might as well have been Mary Berry or Paul Hollywood coming to my house. I put my best tablecloth on the dining-room table, a Parisian-themed one with pink roses, laid out my baking on nice white china plates, and looked out some vintage crockery for Melanie to have a nice cup of tea. As it turned out, she didn't want anything to drink but at least the table looked inviting.

I had prepared madeira cake which I had decorated with hand-made sugar flowers; a fruit cake like the one I make for wedding and Christmas cakes; some dainty little sultana scones; some macaroon tarts like my Nana used to make; and a pavlova using the Delia Smith recipe I've had for about 30 years.

The tension started to rise even more when it turned out that Melanie was running late from her previous appointment in Errol, so the wait was longer than I expected.

Once Melanie arrived I was relieved to find out that she was very friendly and easy to talk to and we had a long chat about recipe books – my scones and macaroon tarts were from my well-thumbed Be-Ro book that my Mum gave me when I left home. Melanie is really keen on using long-established recipes.

It was a strange feeling having someone give very honest and frank feedback about my baking but it was all worth it in the end as I am now the very proud owner of a Scottish Baking Award. What made it even more special was that out of five visits Melanie had made that day, myself and the Cairn O Mohr café were the only two to receive an award.

I'm already thinking about what I'll bake for Melanie for the 2017 awards.

More information about Melanie and the Awards scheme, as well as reviews about all the award winners, are available on the website www.scottishbakingawards.co.uk.

Glenfarg and Duncrievie in Bloom

It is now over 10 years since GDIB was formed and a few of us old worthies have been there from the start. But what has happened in these 10 years?

Well I, for one, am over 10 years older. But what really got me thinking about where GDIB is at and where we're going was when I looked at the volunteers who were out helping to plant the new shrubs at the Glenfarg Green, the volunteers who were cutting back vegetation and weed killing at the Railway Wall, the volunteers on the watering rota this year, the volunteers who assist with the school planting and the volunteers who help maintain the school orchard. Suffice to say, none of them are going to see their 60th birthday again. People often ask why we do it and the answer is always the same - we do it for you, for your village, for your children and for the environment.

Much is said of succession planning, in particular in the business world, but organisations such as ours can only appeal to you, the younger generation, to volunteer and ultimately take over the success story that has been GDIB. Only by doing this can we ensure that Glenfarg and Duncrievie don't return to the days of overgrown and litter strewn public areas. For those of you who can't remember what it was like, or those of you who have moved to the area in the last 10 years, I have an album of photographs that would amaze you. From the derelict areas that are now Train Stop and the Dupplin area by the hanging baskets, the creation of the outdoor classroom at the Primary school, all the way up to the environs of Duncrievie, magnificently enhanced by the BUD offshoot, the transformation has been exceptional. No wonder the village has been commended and picked up Gold at several award ceremonies.

You, and only you, can save GDIB for generations to come by volunteering. Join the watering rota by contacting Alison on 830093, give your e-mail contact details to Irene on 830441 for alert when there's an "as and when" task to be done or just make yourself known to Donald, John, Brian, Doreen or Kate.

Here pictured are the future drivers being instructed on the operation of the brand new mower purchased to cut the grass verges on the village roads.

A date for your diary - 21st August at 2pm Glenfarg and Duncrevie In Bloom Open Gardens. Starts at the Village Hall.

BAR

Beer And Records

BAR started off as two friends who share a passion for real ales and listening to music on vinyl. On such an occasion we wondered if there were others like us who would enjoy spending the evening talking about what they were drinking and listening to. So in September 2015 we had our first BAR gathering at the Glenfarg Tennis Club and have held several successful evenings since.

The main purpose of the evening is to enjoy the music and to enjoy a drink with friends but to keep things fresh each gathering has a theme, sometimes beer related, sometimes music related and sometimes both. Each BAR member brings along 6 bottles of the same beer and the evening starts with many of us taking part in a tasting session of each, using appropriately sized glasses. This gives you the opportunity to try many beers you perhaps have not heard of or have avoided in the past. Each beer is scored, a winner is declared and then the remaining bottles are enjoyed by all. Whilst enjoying the many different beers each member chooses music to play from their personal vinyl collection or from those that have been brought along by other members. We acknowledge that not everyone may still have vinyl or perhaps some are not quite ready to share that guilty secret hidden away.

At the moment there is a core group of us that try to attend every month and we are a mixture of ages and both men and women. Not everyone enjoys ale and therefore some bring along their own refreshment and although they don't take part in the beer tasting, they still enjoy the music.

So if this appeals to you then please come along to one of the forthcoming BAR events at the Tennis Club in Wallace Park. Dates will be posted through the Glenfarg Grapevine and shop window. You can also contact myself Daniel at daniel\_horsham05@tiscali.co.uk or Rob at rjduncan71@gmail.com if you can make an event or if you have any questions. Hopefully see you at the BAR!

Arngask Pupils Say Thank You

To thank members of the community who have helped Arngask School in any way, the children produced hand-made invitations and baked cakes and biscuits to accompany morning coffee and tea for these guests. Everyone agreed the quality of the baking was excellent! Each guest received a hand-made "Thank You" Certificate and mine will certainly be laminated and displayed on my kitchen wall! Well done and thank you, children!

Glenfarg Fun Day

At the end of June, the village had its first "Fun Day" which was held in place of the annual Fete that had to be cancelled this year.

Although the event was a lot smaller than the Fete, it still turned out to be a huge success with over £2000 raised that will be shared between local organizations.

The day was not the best weather wise, but that did not deter many villagers and guests from coming along to enjoy the several different stalls such as Pig Racing, Train Game, face painting, raffle, bottle stall, tuck shop, BBQ etc. and of course the bar, plus there was a small fun fair and several craft stalls.

Music was provided by Dave Watt, who also hosted a ceilidh in the evening, plus Laurence Bec staged his unique style of Disco for the younger ones who had an absolute ball!

A big thank you must go out to all the people who helped to set up the gazebos and marquee on Friday, and those who made it on Sunday morning for the set-down. And a special big thank you to Will MacPherson on behalf of Hilton Hotel Garden Suites Glasgow for the overnight stay at the hotel he gifted as main prize in the raffle, and to Fiona Rutherford on behalf of Earnside Coaches for the £25.00 gift voucher she donated for the raffle.

Thanks to John Armstrong for the provision of the super fast Pig Racing track he constructed.

There were many fantastic cakes donated for the tea and coffee room, so again a big thank you for all the ladies who as usual came up with the goods.

And of course the public who came along on the day and gave their support to this, our first "Fun Day", and to all the many helpers and stall holders who worked hard to make the day such a huge success.

All in all this was a superb event that started on Friday, continued on Saturday, and finished on Sunday with a pop up bar, organized by a very small committee of 5 villagers who worked endlessly to make this inaugural event such a success. Roll on next year!

Local organisations, groups and clubs are now invited to apply for a share of the Fun Day 2016 Surplus. Applications should be for specified expenditure that contributes to the development and/or sustainability of the organisation, and/or the achievement of its developmental or improvement aims.

Application forms are available from the Village Shop or the Glenfarg Website www.glenfarg.org.

Closing date for applications is Friday 19 August 2016. The bids will be discussed by the Fun Day Committee on 1st September 2016 and applicants advised of the result.

Glenfarg Scouts

The Scout Group AGM was on the 19th May.

Beavers, Cubs, Scouts and their parents were divided into teams to try different scouting activities to develop team work and problem solving skills. The 6 groups tried activities from tent pitching to making cups from a piece of paper. The leaders had first to work out how to run the evening planned for outdoors in the village hall as it was raining at the start.

Activity and challenge badges were awarded to some of the Beavers Cubs and Scouts attending.

After the formal AGM the Scout Group presented the retiring Scout Leader Andrew Vaughan with an engraved tankard to mark his 10 years' service to the Scout Troop.

The Village Hall

Did you know that our Village Hall started life as the local school? I am imagining that the cupola on the roof once held a large brass bell, rung to summon all the kids to their daily lessons.

However, in 1906 the School Board erected a new school on another site - presumably the one we know today. So, a Village Committee was formed for the purpose of purchasing the old School as a Public Hall.

How do I know this? Well, it's due to Elspeth Buchan clearing out her loft - which is where she found the Glenfarg Public Hall Association Regulations. Interesting reading!

It seems that in November 1906, the hall was handed over to the Village Committee for the sum of £101. This presumably large sum of money at the time had to be borrowed from a committee member, Mr William Deas, at 4.5% interest. He actually lent £220, so that alterations and refurbishment could be carried out.

In 1918, the loan was taken over by Mr J. Morison of Scarhead who initially waived the interest and finally made a gift of the £220 to the Committee.

In December 1929, the Glenfarg Public Hall Association was formed 'consisting of all in the parish who subscribe 2/6 annually for membership'. That's two shillings and six pence in 'old money'. I make it about twelve and a half pence today. At the same time, the General Accident Corporation was appointed as Trustee.

In 1948 the regulations were revised, the subscription was abolished, and the membership based on the electoral roll of the Parish of Arngask.

Today, the hall is managed by the Village Hall Committee, with a Constitution and a Board of Trustees at Capita, London. The present committee has looked at the appropriateness of being overseen by absentee trustees- there are more modern formats such as a Community Interest Company - but legal costs mean that this has been set aside until the need arises.

But the needs of the community are constantly evolving. At present, the community is looking at the need for some kind of Social Hub. Our Village Hall is a community asset which will be one part of the discussion. Therefore, our Village Hall Committee is involved in ongoing discussions with the Social Hub Working Group as they explore all possible options.

Which brings us full circle - once again the village has to come together to decide on how the community meets the needs of all its members, and work together to achieve this. Make sure you're part of it.

Members of Glenfarg and Duncricvie in Bloom clearing weed from the village pond assisted by enthusiastic junior volunteers.

Glenfarg Beavers

The Beavers went to Burleigh Sands for their last meeting of the summer term. It wasn't the best of weather but the cold and rain didn't bother the Beavers.

They went on a nature walk and mini beast hunt. The mini beasts were hiding from the weather (or the Beavers) and the only beasts the Beavers managed to catch were the ones not fast enough to run away – big black slugs.

The Beavers made new woggles from grass and identified different trees while waiting for the burgers from the barbecue. After they had finished the burgers, sausages, plus the cake provided by Findley's mum, the new Beavers were invested.

SOCIAL HUB WORKING GROUP (SHWG) In the absence of the Social Hub Working Group representative, CCllr Ponton reiterated that all minutes of this group are posted on the community website (www.glenfarg.org).

A discussion took place amongst the CCllrs with regard to: The activities of the SHWG.

The ongoing discussions that were taking place between the SHWG and the Village Hall Committee with regard to siting an additional facility within the confines of the Village Hall grounds or as an extension to the original building. It was apparent that there is an air of conflicting interests, that the Community Council is not an arbitrator between the two parties and insisted that the Village Hall is for the wider use of the whole community and not by any individual or group. It was agreed that both parties must work together to achieve an amicable common agreement for all Village Hall users both present and future. The Community Right To Buy application for the land at the site of the Glenfarg Hotel (and any buildings thereon) failed in its initial submission to the Scottish Government. However, an additional submission will be formatted and presented 30mph limit) and changing it to a Smiley Face type.

Secondly, the position of the South VAS to remain in its present location although it is to be changed to a Smiley Face type with the additional adjustment of the “activation” monitor to be adjusted to 50m.

Thirdly, for the South 30mph limit signs and location to be moved approximately 50m further south (this point of action will take longer due to a legal action by P&KC through a Road Traffic Regulation order). It was noted and agreed that the existing 30mph signs’ location is close to the beginning of residential properties, the signs are not illuminated (in darkness) individually but relying on overhead street lighting for illumination and an improvement was necessary.

The solution and proposal was accepted by the Community Council whereby confirmation will be sent to the Principal Traffic & Network Officer to proceed with the associated works and to notify the Community Council of the P&KC work timescale.

Payment for the signs and accompanying works is still to be finalised, signed off and this will be clarified in due course by CCllr Horsman.

VAS for Duncrievie – An ongoing activity is underway currently to have the Glenfarg VAS’s made movable between two sites. This ongoing activity would not take place prior to the completed works associated with Glenfarg. More details will follow at a later Community Council meeting. CCllrs Watson and Arnold.

Bus timetable It was discussed that a proposal has been made by P&KC in association with the bus operators to review certain services in the evening involving the consolidation of routes 56 and 55X. Microgrant BUD Duncrievie in Bloom group made an application for a grant to purchase a heavy duty strimmer. The Community Council is not against any submission, although they did dismiss the grant by taking note that there was a shortfall between the grant request and the actual cost of the machine. It was discussed that one piece of machinery (a motorised grass cutter) that was purchased some time ago was to be and should be used for both Duncrievie and Glenfarg activities with particular grass cutting to be carried out on the pedestrian/cycle route from Stephen Builders' trees to the exit for Duncrievie. On this theme of "shared ownership" the Community Council suggested through CCllr Ponton that both Glenfarg in Bloom and Duncrievie in Bloom should get together, work out who has what in terms of machinery and utilise the items for the benefit of both communities. CCllr Ponton recommended that representatives need to review their association to work together for the common good. The Community Council voiced their full support and applauded both groups for their tireless and wonderful work that they carry out adding that individuals have made and are making considerable contributions at no cost to the wider community (utilising their own funds, tools and workwear). Both Glenfarg and Duncrievie groups to be contacted by the Community Council outlining the need to review machinery and to agree a format for the sharing of their resources. CCllr Warder.

Neighbourhood Watch Scheme (NHW) CCllr Arnold gave an update about the current scheme on behalf of Linsey Penman our local NHW Co-ordinator.

Key Points:

1. Membership now stands at one hundred and four.
2. In the past three months forty-eight alerts from NHW Scotland and Police Scotland have been forwarded to the members. Additionally, five alerts have been raised locally regarding suspicious workers/vehicles and cold callers.
3. Two vandalised NHW signs have been replaced and a new NHW sign erected at the Glenfarg Village sign south of Wallace Park.
4. A leaflet and window sticker drop was made to Duncrievie and Drunzie in June with plans (when more leaflets and stickers are available) to carry out a similar exercise in Glenfarg. CCllr Arnold.

Broadband update The village now has Superfast Broadband and it is being made available to the residents who wish for it to be installed through infill and communication activities by BT.

Unfortunately for those residents who live outside the village, in our more rural locations, there is no timescale (locally). Should BT notify the CC otherwise we will of course notify our rural community through the Minutes.

Vision It was noted that the results of the Glenfarg Community “Vision” survey have been received fully, results collated and the findings to be made known to the Community Council at our next meeting. CCllr Horsman.

Authority Air Space project team publishing plans for revised flight paths covering Fife, Lothians and Perth & Kinross, to allow adjustment and to cope with future increased flight traffic (both commercial and business/tourist). The Community Council were given an outline by Cllr Taylor and commented further on by those present. Whilst it is not envisaged how the area could be affected with aircraft noise and air pollution it was requested that we are required to examine the matter further. We urge those in the community to refer to an article published “on line” that can be accessed through Google for www.thecourier.co.uk 16th June 2016 and go to the survey site of Letsgofurther.com filling in the requested details, make comment and provide feedback to the necessary Air Space project team. Cllr Taylor.

Glenfarg Village Viewpoint CCllr Watson started a discussion relating to the Viewpoint’s present location and the fact that it is now being obscured and proposing a relocated position. After some discussion it was decided to get all CCllrs to view the sign and its intended location (nearer to Duncrievie or in Wallace Park) and to vote within a week or so on the proposal using e-mail. Any associated works to be offered to and taken up with the Payback Team. CCllrs and co-ordination by CCllr Watson.

CCllr McKenzie and ex Chairperson. To avoid further misunderstanding the Community Council confirmed that Donald McKenzie has in fact resigned from the CC to pursue further personal interests. We as a CC, as do the wider community, applaud Donald for his years of office, thank him for his leadership and wish him the very best for the future. CCllrs.

Next meeting of the Community Council is on Monday 5th September 2016, 7.30pm in the Village Hall
